

COMPANION WORKSHEET

Do You Have What It Takes to Generate Business Success?

An abbreviated self-assessment from Is Small Business Ownership for You?

Have you thought about owning your own business but are wondering if this is the right path for you? Take this abbreviated self-assessment to start down the path to making this important decision.

01 Do I have the key traits that are helpful in running a small business?

02 Can I apply strategic thinking to the business?

03 Do I have a passion for the business?

04 Can I develop and maintain the relationships needed for a successful business?

05 Am I willing to make the necessary commitments to run a successful business?

06 Do I understand cash flow?

07 Am I willing to take risks?

08 Will business ownership provide the rewards that I need to make the venture worthwhile?

09 Is this the right time for me to own a business?

Laurie Johnson

Author, retired firm president, and mentor to future business owners.

Refer to Is Small Business Ownership for You? to explore these questions further and complete the full self-assessment.